LUCILE ELLIOTT SCHOLARSHIP ANNOUNCEMENT

The Southeastern Chapter of the American Association of Law Libraries, at a meeting held in Chapel Hill on October 30, 1964 established a scholarship fund in honor of Miss Lucile Elliott, to be given at such times and in such amounts as funds are available.

Miss Lucile Elliot was one of our most honored and beloved members. She retired as Law Librarian at the University of North Carolina in 1955 after a distinguished career of service. The American Association of Law Libraries conferred upon her their highest honor when they elected her as their national president in 1953. Upon her retirement, she was made a life member of the Association. In large part, due to her efforts the Southeastern Chapter was organized. Appropriately, approval of our Chapter occurred during the 1954 National meeting, over which she presided. Miss Elliott's interest in encouraging young librarians to advance in the profession makes it most fitting that a fund was established, from which scholarships are given by this Chapter in honor of her memory.

Three scholarships will be awarded in the current fiscal year, 1982-1983, in the amount of $250.00 each. Any law librarian living in the Southeastern area may apply for a scholarship. However, only persons who have not received a Southeastern or A.A.L.L. grant during the previous five (5) years are eligible to win a Lucile Elliott Scholarship. The Scholarship is to be used for any purpose reasonably designed to improve one's professional knowledge and/or to advance one's career in law librarianship.

Although in recent years, most scholarships have been used to attend the A.A.L.L. or Southeastern annual meeting and/or institutes, applicants seeking financial support for other endeavors within the scope of the scholarship will be given equal consideration. Because of the scheduling of the Chapter's annual meeting in early 1983, this year only, an award may be used retrospectively to reimburse the winner for his-her travel expenses to the February Southeastern meeting. Librarians working in either county, court or law firm libraries are urged to apply.

An application form is attached. Additional copies may be photocopied or requested from the committee chairman. All applications must be received by the committee chairman by March 15, 1983.

This year's committee is composed of

- Gene Teitelbaum, University of Louisville Law Library, Chairman
- Laurel R. Clapp, Stamford University Law Library, Birmingham, Alabama
- Alcyone Hart, Holland and Knight, Tampa, Florida
- Brian Polley, Florida Supreme Court, Tallahassee, Florida
